Wrinkles Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both: hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C. Nov. 4

The negro, Rufus Charles, who received the blow on the head here night before last was taken to his home at Sandy Ridge this morning. His injuries are not as serious as was first reported.

Rev. J. F. McCulloch, of Greensboro, prohibition candidate for the senate, spoke here last night in the warehouse to about twenty people. It is said by those who heard him that he made a good speech.

Woody Brothers Convention and Concert Co. gave a free concert in the Methodist church last night. They are the finest singers that have ever visited this city. They will give another concert next Wednesday night after prayer-meeting. Their object is to organize a singing school. About thirty joined last night. Their terms are five lessons for $2.00, if you are convinced that you have learned how to sing after they have given five lessons. Two of them went to Asheboro today and are expected to return tomorrow, so they will sing in the Methodist church Sunday. You will miss a musical treat if you fail to hear them. We trust that they will succeed in organizing a large class here. Everybody is invited to attend the concert next Wednesday night.

We failed to mention yesterday that the Young Ladies Democratic Club met the day before and added several more names to the roll. The club received an exceedingly encouraging letter from Mrs. Clio Cunningham Wofford, whose letters appeared in the Telegram not long since. Her letter appears in today's Enterprise. We are pleased to know that the club is accomplishing great good, as is always the case when the ladies become aroused on a subject.

Cyrus Cummings is building an eight room house on the corner of Russell and Willowbrook streets.

We have heard Republicans talking about Democratic lies, now we wish to ask the republicans what kind of a lie that is being told not only by republican men but by ladies too that the negro that was beat by a democrat in Thomasville the day of barbecue was dead. This report is false. There was no negro beat by a democrat there that day. A negro was arrested by an officer who asked the assistance of some other men to help tie the brute, but he is not dead. This was the negro that tried to tear a democratic button off a white man's coat. The negro that died was stabbed by some other person. The parties that are spreading this lie should be indicted for slander.

White men get your lanterns and flags ready for the "big white men's parade" next Monday night. Which will you follow, the band, the ladies and the procession of white men to hear Major Stedman and Mr. Watson, or the negroes and a few white faced men to hear Jim Boyd. This is the first chance you have ever had to show your "colors" to ladies and the many other visitors. Every white man from everywhere is cordially invited to take part in this great event.

Day before yesterday some little white boys and some negroes had a little trouble on the street near the Tate Furniture Company. That afternoon the negroes, about ten in number, waylaid the white boys, and would have got the best of them had it not been for some men in the factory, who ran out and interfered. Upon the strength of this four men, who were going to vote the republican ticket said that they could see very plainly what this country was coming to and swore then and there that they would vote the democratic ticket from now on. So much for that.

A large crowd was at the depot last night to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fields, who were married yesterday noon in Tacos, Ga. Mrs. Fields is a sister to Mrs. William Lee Harrell, instead of Rev. Mr. Harrell, as was stated in these columns day before yesterday. They will have rooms at the home of Mr. Fields' father for the present.

The Speaking Postponed.
Owing to deep cold and hoarseness the appointment for Hon. C. M. Stedman to speak here has been changed from tonight until tomorrow night. Major Stedman is doing most effective speech making in this campaign, and our people should pack the court house to hear him tomorrow night.

FITZ LEE'S MOTHER IS DEAD

Much Sympathy is Expressed For The General.

PLANS FOR CUBAN OCCUPATION

The North Carolina Political Situation as Viewed From The National Capital.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 4.—News of the death of Mrs. Lee, mother of General Lee was received in Washington late yesterday afternoon. At the war department much sympathy is expressed for the General. It is probable that the President will send to the General a message expressing his condolence.

At the war department up to a late hour yesterday no word had been received personally from the General, but it is not thought that he will leave for Savannah before Thursday of next week.

Provided the General is in Virginia on election day it is likely that he will vote in the congressional election.

The plans for the occupation of Cuba are being formulated by the war department, and it is stated at the department that the movement will take place about December 1st. It is said, however, that Havana will not be occupied until after the rest of the island is fully garrisoned by the United States troops. This is a change in the policy on the part of the war department, and it is occasioned by the recommendation of the special board, of which Col. Hecker is president. The plans of the war department have been changed so often within the past week, that it is hard to tell what the officials do contemplate. It is announced one day at the department that a certain thing is to be done, and the next day the whole thing has been rearranged. It is now said that no large movement of troops will take place before the latter part of the month. At the war department it is said that the transports are being rapidly put in readiness for the movement but that they cannot be gotten to Savannah earlier than the 20th instant.

In regard to the taking formal possession of Cuba, in spite of statements made to the contrary, the war department officials say that no change in the original policy has taken place, and that the island will come formally under the protection of the American flag on January 1st, as originally contemplated.

It is not expected that General Lee will come to Washington city again before he leaves for Savannah, though it is possible that next week he may conclude to take a run over for a short while.

On account of the great political excitement in North Carolina, the leaders at the republican congressional headquarters in Washington express fears that they may lose several seats from the state. This will almost surely result unless the republicans are able to poll the full negro vote of the state on Tuesday. The seats now held by the republicans are the Second, Eighth, and Ninth districts. The re-election of Mr. Pearson is expected, but the republicans fear that they may lose the Second and Eighth districts.

In the Second district it is thought that the populist nominee will be elected over the negro White, and it is understood that if he is elected he will act with the democrats in the house. It is thought, too, that the democrats may reclaim some of the seats now held by the republicans are the Second, Eighth, and Ninth districts. THE SANFORD RALLY.

We had the pleasure on yesterday of visiting the good old county of Moore and attending the white men's rally and barbecue at Sanford. As it was not definitely known that a special train would be run, only a small crowd went down from Greensboro. There was, however, a tremendous crowd at Sanford, people being there from Moore, Chatham, Harnett, Cumberland, Richmond, Montgomery, Randolph and Guilford counties.

A long procession headed by the Silver City brass band, paraded the streets at ten o'clock and over to Jonesboro, two miles distant, where they met the democratic club of that place. In the procession there were many ladies on horseback.

Arriving at the speakers' stand about noon, a short speech of welcome was delivered by Hon. D. E. McIver, of Sanford, and Hon. W. J. Adams, chairman of Moore county executive committee, introduced Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, who held the close attention of the vast assemblage for one hour. He is an able, brave and courageous man. He is not an orator or a great speaker, but his blows are landed with sledge-hammer force. He reviewed the reform movement in South Carolina in great contrast with the policy of alliance reforms in North Carolina, and deplored the failure of populists and democrats to unite for white supremacy. He said both sides were to blame; but after learning the terms offered by the populists he excused the democrats so far as that proposition was concerned. He told us that when 210,000 white men are dominated by 120,000 negroes there is something rotten up the creek.

He advised populists to return to the democratic party as quickly as possible. The Senator denounced as an infamous lie the report that he had advised the disfranchisement of ignorant white voters. He was surprised to learn that it was possible for a man to insult North Carolina womanhood, as the negro editor has done in Wilmington, and still live.

After partaking of a bountiful barbecue dinner, the immense crowd returned to the speakers' stand and for one hour and a half listened to the burning eloquence of Hon. C. B. Aycock. His speech was resistless and forceful. After the speaking many were heard to remark that "Aycock is the best speaker and the greatest man in North Carolina."

Three cheers for the Sanford democratic club and the white people of Moore county. Hundreds of beautiful women inspired both speakers and audience by their charming presence.

What's the matter with the mails? Our representative who attended the fair in Winston, mailed a communication to us Wednesday night, and it reached here Thursday night! A distance of only 28 miles, yet requiring a letter 24 hours to reach its destination. How's that for time? One and one-sixth miles per hour!

A Chatham county republican who says he will vote white this time, has decided not to sow any wheat until after the election. He thinks it will sprout and come up better after the news of the victory for white supremacy.

"ABUSE" OF NEGROES.

We occasionally receive a letter from a colored man protesting against what he calls democratic abuse of a downtrodden, helpless and inoffensive race. There is not a negro in North Carolina with average intelligence and a shadow of honesty, who will not admit that in public and private life the democrats are his best friends. The democrats gave them equal advantage with the whites in securing an education, gave them asylums for their afflicted, and furnish them employment by which they can earn a living for themselves and their families.

To say that the democrats are abusing the negro is all rot, unless by the term abuse they mean that the democrats are opposed to being dominated by negroes. If that is abuse, then we plead guilty. We do not deny that we are everlasting and eternally opposed to negroes holding office over white men. But we do deny that there is any abuse in this. The men who are to blame are the white men who joined hands with negroes and placed them in office. And be it understood now and forever that there will be no let up in the fight, there will be no peace in North Carolina as long as this condition exists.

Negroes have no right to expect any favors at the hands of the democrats as long as they use their right of suffrage solidly in an unholy fight against the best interests of the men on whom they rely for their support and for their education. There is among some people such a thing as gratitude, but it is as foreign to the average negro voter as icicles are to our climate in July.

If the negroes of North Carolina expect to live here and thrive, and continue to receive the blessings bestowed upon them at the hands of the white people of the State, they must recognize and respect the inherent and God-given right of the white people to rule and govern.

Will Not Raise The Wrecks.

Washington, Nov. 3—Secretary Long said this afternoon that the government would take no further steps to raise the rest of the Spanish warships destroyed by Admiral Schley's fleet off the coast of Santiago but that the department would receive propositions to that end from any private firm that cared to undertake the work. He added that this determination was based upon the report of the board of inquiry which recently had a consultation on the subject with Naval Constructor Hobson, who was personally supervising the wrecking operations. The existing contract with the Merritt-Chapman Company will be abrogated, the operations entirely suspended on the Colon and other vessels pending the consideration of propositions from private firms to do the work independent of the government. It is understood that there are two companies willing to undertake the work at their own risk, one a Sweden Company and the other a company on the Pacific coast.

The Mountains Waking Up.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 3—The greatest political meeting ever seen in Western North Carolina was held here last night in the grand opera house under the management of the county executive committee. It was an inspiring gathering of the manhood and womanhood of Buncombe county.

Hon. Locke Craig was at his best and made a superb speech. The great audience sang the Star Spangled Banner, and the Old North State, led by the superb orchestra of the Battery Park Hotel. When Chairman Murphy declared that renegade negroes from South Carolina and Tennessee, imported for the purpose of carrying this election, should not vote, the shout of applause by the audience was deafening.

How much do you charge for Saratoga potato chips? We manufacture them ourselves, three or four times a week, so they are always fresh. Price 20c pound.

Please name over some other prices, for the prices you have given are lower than I am paying.

Potted ham and tongue 5 and 9c, sardines 4 and 12c, crackers, 33c, city and oyster crackers 9c, ginger snaps 8c, candy, French mixture or stick 9c, soap, octagon 4c, Lenox 3c; catsup 9 and 13c, prepared mustard 10c per bottle, bottled pickles 9c, canned tomatoes 9c, sweet corn 9c, bushel, Irish potatoes 20c peck, onions 16c peck, cabbage 16c pound, turnips 10c peck and other goods at equally low prices.

Please take my order. We are ready. Is that all? Yes sir, for today. Please call at our house every day after this. Thank you, we will do so.

Rang seven sharp and rapid reports, and with unerring aim seven bullets pierced through the villain's heart, he reeled and gasped, but with the jenacity of a ferocious Bull Dog, "the villain still pursued her."

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Ingram has a change of ad today. E. R. Tucker went to Reidsville, at noon.

W. E. Lewis gives a few pieces in his space today. Hon. James H. Pou of Raleigh, was in the city this afternoon.

Mrs. E. D. Steele of High Point, is in the city this afternoon.

Miss Flora Swain returned home last night from the Winston fair.

D. Schenck, Jr., left at noon today for Reidsville where he speaks this afternoon.

A large number of Reidsville people passed through this morning enroute to the Winston fair.

Wonder if the fusion candidates are not going to give Greensboro people a chance to hear them speak.

Hudson advertises all kinds of fruits vegetables, poultry, game and oysters in his space today. Read his ad.

Mrs. W. J. High, of Roanoke, Va., who has been visiting her son, Mr. A. B. High, here, returned to her home last evening.

W. A. Wingate calls your attention to the fact that you can buy a bicycle at your own price at his store tomorrow night. See his ad.

The library committee will meet Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in Dr. Richardson's office. Each member of this committee will take especial pains to be there, as the chairman desires a full meeting.

Another show is coming. This one perhaps is not so large, but has a reputation for being equally as interesting. Pawnee Bill's Great Wild West Show will be here on Nov. 18th, with all the wonders on the go.

Eugene Pepper, of the Telegram force, went to his home at Danbury this afternoon to attend the democratic rally and barbecue at that place tomorrow. He will remain until Nov. 1st and cast a democratic vote before he returns.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tomlinson and Mrs. Burch returned at noon today from High Point and Archdale, where they have been visiting for a few days. They were present at the reception in High Point of Mr. Bert Field and his bride whom he married in Dakota, Ga.

The University football team passed through last night enroute to Winston, where they play the Virginia Polytechnic Institute today. The game was called at 11 o'clock this morning. The V. P. I. team play Guilford College tomorrow, on the latter's grounds.

Mr. Joseph P. Sanders of Charlotte has moved to Greensboro, and is opening up the Buchanan building, recently moved behind Clegg's Hotel. Mr. Sanders will run a first class restaurant with lunch counter, and accommodation for board and lodging. The building has been nicely fitted up and is an excellent place for the business Mr. Sanders proposes to conduct.

Some Spasmodic Performances.

The Southern Express Company's delivery horse had a fit in front of the Cone Export and Commission Company's this morning and made it live for his driver who had stepped into the latter Company's office to deliver a package. The horse first began staggering, the driver started to unhitch. The job was about half finished when the fit proper developed and the half-loosed horse began jumping, he knew not cared not where. He was unhitched before he broke out of one of the Cone Company's large plate glass windows, which he came near doing at one time in the shuffle.

A Delightful Reception.

Hon. A. L. Brooks spoke at Tabernacle, about ten miles west of the city, last night and was given the warmest reception, he says, yet accorded him at any rural appointment since he went into the campaign. There were about two hundred and fifty in the audience, about seventy-five of whom were ladies. Mr. Brooks struck a love feast. They had placed a piano in the room and before the speaking the audience sang "The Old North State" and other patriotic songs. Our gallant candidate made an eloquent speech at the close of which he was showered with beautiful bouquets from the ladies. Mr. Brooks' reception made him happy and he filled the buggy with the bouquets to bring along as proof of a big time, fearing that it would be too good for some of his doubling friends. The men were equally as enthusiastic as the ladies and the gallant democrat's speech made him votes as well as friends.
